Pharmacy is a highly regulated and competitive profession. Changes to remuneration, ownership and practice continue to provide challenges to pharmacists. Clinch Long Woodbridge is recognised as one of the leading Pharmacy Law practices in Australia. Our pharmacy law experts can guide you through all aspects of ownership and regulatory issues.

Clinch Long Woodbridge are active participants in the Pharmacy community, and have a regular column in Retail Pharmacy Magazine. We also contribute articles to the Independent Pharmacy Advisers newsletter.

“

For more than 5 years, Peter Clinch and his team at Clinch Long Woodbridge, have been an important part of our legal framework. All our experiences have been of the highest quality with prompt action where needed from contracts through to litigious matters. I can highly recommend them both for their diligent and sensible approach to legal work and their knowledge in the Pharmacy industry.
